

FREE GARDENING WORKSHOPS IN JULY

Join a special series of workshops to help you sow seeds, improve soil and make your own hanging basket! The workshops are suitable for all levels and are run by experienced gardeners.

WORKSHOP 1: What Seeds to Sow Now

It is not too late to plant seeds! Explore the amazingly productive greenhouse and learn from expert grower Fabrice about what seeds to plant now to ensure you have produce through the winter. Meet other local gardeners and strengthen your networks/share seeds skills,

Date: Saturday, 23 July 2016

Time: 10.00-12.00

Location: Myatts Fields Park Greenhouse, Cormont Road, London SE5 9RA

WORKSHOP 2: Composting and Soil Improvement

Learn how to compost soil to prevent pests and encourage beneficial wildlife. Composting, and letting nature do the work, is at the core of permaculture systems. The workshop is led by Michel Thill, a local permaculture teacher. All resources are provided.

Date: Tuesday, 26 July 2016

Time: 15.00-17.00

Location: The Spinney, Clapham Common, 16 Belmont Close, Clapham SW4 6AT

WORKSHOPS 3: Hanging Baskets and Kokedama

Date: Saturday, 30 July 2016

Time: 10.00-12.00 followed by drop-in 12.00-13.00

Location: Pop Farm, Pop Brixton, 49 Brixton Station Rd, London SW9 8PQ

Transform your space instantly with a hanging plant! We will use traditional hanging baskets but also practice the Japanese art of kokedama, which uses string and moss to hang individual plants. The workshop will be run by Urban Growth.
